

Media Procedures

1. COMPLIANCE OBLIGATION SUPPORTED

Brand Communications Policy

2. PROCEDURAL DETAILS

2.1 Commenting to the media

- 2.1.1 An appropriately qualified staff member may offer expert comment to the media on their work or in relation to a broader community issue provided they limit comment to their area of expertise. The staff member may use their Curtin title but will ensure that the views they are expressing are not portrayed to be or purport to represent an official view of the University.

In addition, the following members of the Curtin community may comment to media:

(a) Authorised University spokespersons

University spokespersons authorised by the Vice-Chancellor may communicate with the media on behalf of the University on specific matters. They are deemed to represent the University's official views on these matters.

(b) The Vice-Chancellor or her/his representative

Only the Vice-Chancellor or her/his representative may communicate with the media on topics or issues relating to Curtin University as a whole, including operational matters and University policies

(c) The Chancellor

Only the Chancellor may comment on Council and governance matters.

(d) Adjunct Professors may use their Curtin title when speaking to the media as long as their comments are not portrayed to be or purport to represent an official view the University and relate to their specific area of expertise. They may speak with the media on other issues but will not use their Curtin title.

(e) Doctoral students may speak to the media, with the specific approval of their supervisor, as long as their comments relate to their area of research and are not portrayed to be or purport to represent an official view the University.

(f) Representatives of the Curtin Student Guild are free to speak with the media on behalf of students but not on behalf of the University.

- 2.1.2 Those covered under 2.1.1 will not use or make visible Curtin's name or their Curtin title when commenting on issues that are outside their area of expertise or which are not otherwise authorised under these Procedures. This does not apply to Guild representatives.

- 2.1.3 Views expressed to the media by those covered under 2.1.1 and using their Curtin title will be consistent with Curtin University's Values and Signature Behaviours. This does not apply to Guild representatives.

- 2.1.4 Media Relations provide a number of media training courses and staff are advised to at least complete the Introductory Media Training prior to speaking with the media. Information can be found at the Media Centre on the Curtin website. Any staff member in doubt concerning communications with the media will contact their relevant Head of School or Executive Manager and consult with Media Relations for advice and assistance.

2.2 Media releases

- 2.2.1 Media releases are written, approvals obtained and issued by Media Relations.

- 2.2.2 Approval of media releases will be facilitated by Media Relations in consultation with each area, as required. This includes liaison with designated public relations staff from external organisations and partners of the University in relation to joint media releases.

- 2.2.3 Statistics and claims of fact contained in media releases will be verifiable (refer Competition and Consumer Act 2010). Approval of media releases will be taken to include approval of any statistics or claims used.
- 2.2.4 The Vice President, Corporate Relations may prevent or delay the issuing of an approved media release if she/he considers it will be detrimental to the interests of the University, pending the decision of the Vice-Chancellor.
- 2.2.5 Media releases:

On topics relating to a faculty or area will be approved by the relevant Executive Manager or their nominee. The Executive Manager or nominee will ensure that the release will not negatively impact on or contradict the work of another faculty or other area of the University.

Quoting Curtin staff

Media Relations will submit to and seek approval from individuals quoted prior to issuing media releases.

On Council or governance matters

may only be approved by the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor.

Relating to new faculty or area appointments will be approved by the relevant Executive Manager. Before a media release of this type is issued, the Deputy Director, Media Relations will be provided with written confirmation that the relevant employment contract has been signed and received by People and Culture, unless this condition is exempted by the Vice-Chancellor.

Relating to senior executive appointments will be submitted to and will be approved by the Vice-Chancellor. Before a media release of this type is issued, the Deputy Director, Media Relations will be provided with written confirmation that the relevant employment contract has been signed and received by People and Culture, unless this condition is exempted by the Vice-Chancellor.

On new courses will be submitted to and may be approved by the relevant Pro Vice-Chancellor and the Provost prior to being issued by Media Relations.

On research-related topics will be submitted to and will be approved by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Research or their nominee prior to being issued by Media Relations.

- 2.2.6 Media releases will be issued by Media Relations unless a formal arrangement has been made with the Vice President, Corporate Relations or the Deputy Director, Media Relations.
- 2.2.7 Media releases will be issued subject to the availability of the key spokesperson named in the release or the contact details. When liaising with Media Relations on the development of media releases, staff members will advise of their availability to respond to any media enquiries prompted by the release. If a spokesperson will not be available for comment at the time the media release is issued, the release will either be delayed until an agreed time when the spokesperson is available or an alternative spokesperson will be nominated by the faculty or area involved.
- 2.2.8 Media releases relating to the overall operational matters of Curtin Singapore, Curtin Malaysia, Curtin Dubai and Curtin Mauritius will include commentary and approval by the Vice-Chancellor and be facilitated and issued by Media Relations in-line with Clause 2.1.1(b).

2.3 Duty of care to students and staff

- 2.3.1 Media releases will not contain information on the University generally or students or staff members individually that contravenes its Privacy Statement or other legal obligations.
- 2.3.2 Prior to issue, media releases that contain personal information on students or staff members that have not been approved by the individual student or staff member will be submitted to the Vice-President, Corporate Relations for approval.
- 2.3.3 Students and staff of the University may refuse to be filmed, photographed or interviewed by representatives of the media, or by the University, for distribution to the media. It is recommended that the assistance of Media Relations is sought in such instances.

2.4 Visits to campus by members of the media

Staff involved in media visits to Curtin campuses or centres will advise Public Relations of the visit in advance. Whenever possible, Media Relations staff will ensure media representatives are professionally greeted and assisted during their visit.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

Responsibilities are those as set out in section 2.

4. SCOPE OF PROCEDURES

These procedures apply to all University staff, adjuncts and research students in any location or campus, whether in or outside of Australia.
