Where are you, right now?

Designing your career is a process,
not something that will happen two weeks after submitting your thesis or completing your higher degree

...

So it is important you start thinking about this now.

10 ways to make the most of your time as a PhD student:

1. Network and get online. ...
2. Conferences. ... Be strategic!
3. If you can, teach and get a Higher Education Academy accreditation for it. ...
4. Host a symposium, conference or workshop. ...
5. Apply for funding. ...
6. Do some outreach work. ...
7. Host an event for other postgraduates. ...
8. Run a project. ...
9. Be interdisciplinary, go to other seminars in your university. ...
10. Find a mentor outside of academia

The screenshot displays the UniHub website interface. At the top, there is a navigation menu with options: Home, Jobs & Opportunities, Profile, Documents, Events, Log Hours, Appointments, Employers, Surveys, Resources, and My Account. A search bar is located in the top right corner. Below the navigation menu is a featured banner for "Instant resume reviews" with a "FIND OUT HOW" button. Underneath the banner are five quick action tiles: Log Hours, Pathways, Resource Library, Public Profile, and Add a Resume. The "Upcoming Events" section features four event cards: "Game Changers online workshop: Forming Habits for Success", "Meet the Recruiter Workshop", "Exploring TECH Careers with FDM with Curtin University - Student Success", and "Resume Clinic Workshop". The "Latest Jobs" section shows four job listings from Curtin University and the Chamber of Commerce. The "Jobs Expiring Soon" section highlights two positions: "ASPP - Project Support Analysts" and "Business Law Internship with Fremantle Dockers". At the bottom, there is an "Announcements" section. A large QR code is positioned on the right side of the page.
